

OWINGSVILLE OUTLOOK

VOLUME XLIII

OWINGSVILLE, KENTUCKY, THURSDAY, SEPT. 22, 1921

NUMBER 10

Mt. Sterling is to have a new ice plant.

SHINGLES FOR SALE.
T. R. RATLIFF, Grange City.

There is unseasonably cold weather in Montana accompanied by snow.

Let Joe D. Sheehan do your paper-hanging and painting.

L. C. McGuire, of Rowan county, raised this year watermelons that weighed 27 1/2 pounds each.

Buy William Tell flour or Lexington Maid, I handle them both.

R. C. BYRON.

See Siam Soo, dance on a Columbia record. At E. L. and A. T. Byron's.

The German mark, whose normal value is 24c has fallen to a trifle over two cents.

Heinz pickling vinegar and pickling spices of all kinds.

R. C. BYRON.

Kentucky's tobacco crop for this year is now estimated at 200,000,000 pounds.

Buy the best ice-cream—Orange Peck tea.

J. R. STEELE

Total school fund this year is $78,000, based on $6.10 per child for 650,840 school children.

Montgomery county farmers have signed 90 per cent. of the county's crop of tobacco to the Burley Tobacco Association.

Get our prices on coal, lumber, lime and cement before buying. Right prices and prompt delivery.

THE WALTER YOUNG COAL CO

I have just received a fresh shipment of Pratt's poultry and stock food.

R. C. BYRON.

Mont Thompson dropped dead while playing pool in a Mt. Sterling billiard room Monday. Heart trouble was the cause of death.

You may be paying for a De Laval Separator but not getting it by continuing to use a "cream-robbing" Come in let us convince you. "Easy Terms."

J. R. BROTHER & CO.

LOST: enroute from the Olympian Springs to Paris by way of Mt. Sterling and North Middletown, a steel automobile wheel, painted green, with 32 X 4 tire, inflated. Any information regarding same, notify J. R. AMMERMAN, Owingsville, Ky.

The School Rally means two days of clean, wholesome, helpful entertainment for you and the children. It comes only once a year. Let's lay aside our work, our worries, our troubles and attend the School Rally both days.

Recent Automobile Sales.
Shrout, Piper & Shrout have sold the following automobiles and tractors since September 10th, 1921:

Cornelius Roberts, Touring car, S. J. Ratliff, Delivery Truck; O. W. Frutman, Perryville, Coupe; W. C. Ginter, Touring car; Denton Alfrey, Touring Car; H. C. Gregory, Touring car; Grant North, Sedan; Peter Hart, Touring car; O. S. Smoot, Car; Elsie Runabout; Ed Thompson, Sedan; Jack Thomas, Overland, second hand; Earl Thompson, Touring car; J. B. Hampton, Fordson Tractor.

HOUSE FOR SALE

I want to sell my home and lot, where I live for $5,000 cash or payments, will take as little as $1,000 cash, balance, if suits purchaser better, $1,000 each year until paid, bearing 6 per cent. interest. Can give possession October 1, 1921, or anytime to suit purchaser, if agreed to. Reason for selling, want to build on vacant lot closer in town. This place has two never-failing cisterns, eighty six feet stone veranda, bath room and furnace, two dining rooms and plenty of rooms in first class repair. Good iron fence.

T. S. SHROUT.

PERSONAL

Mrs. J. L. Ewing is the guest of her brother Roy Bolts and wife at Winchester.

Miss Mary Heath, of Pineville, has been visiting her cousin Miss Grace Crooks.

Jas. Steele and wife spent several days last week at the State Fair in Louisville.

H. C. Gudegell, who was confined to his home with illness last week, was able to be out Monday.

Miss Angie Young Jackson is at home after a visit of several weeks to friends at Robinson, Ill.

Mrs. John Boaz of near town visited relatives in Montgomery and Bourbon counties several days last week.

Ira Coyle and Arthur Horseman visited the former's brother Richard Coyle at Winchester Saturday and Sunday.

Herbert Costigan and wife, of Maysville, were guests of the family of M. L. Thomas the latter part of last week.

George Kerr and Mrs. Minnie Goodpaster and Joe Arnold and Miss Ruth Donohue attended the State Fair in Louisville Friday.

Miss Eda Chandler left this week for Louisville, where she has accepted a position as teacher in the Boys' Junior High School.

W. C. Jackson and wife have returned home from a two-months' stay with Mrs. Jackson's father, who has been very ill, at Hilltop, Fleming county.

Francis, Burbridge and Bruce Ratliff, sons of Sam Ratliff, have gone to Irvine, Ky., where they will go into the grocery, meat and fruit business as soon as a new house they are building can be completed. Their father and mother expect to follow them in a couple of months.

Chapman Young visited his aunt Mrs. J. B. Goodpaster from Thursday till Wednesday. Chapman's home is in Los Angeles, California, where he holds a high position in the life insurance business, but has been staying for some time at Colorado Springs, where his wife is in a hospital for medical treatment.

The surest way to a continuous cash income and certain profit is through the dairy cow and the use of a De Laval Separator. Easy Terms.

J. R. BROTHER & CO.

There will be three base ball games played during the School Rally this year. These games will be worth while. $10.00 worth of base ball goods will be given to the winner of the series.

2t.

Mary Frances, 10-year-old daughter of Morton Perry and wife, died Sunday night of membranous croup after a brief illness. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon and burial at Allen graveyard.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We are pleased to announce 1922 prices effective now on the celebrated De Laval Cream Separators. These reductions place them to pre-war levels.

J. R. BROTHER & CO.

Jas. Donaldson, of Peeled Oak, who has been very low with kidney trouble, has been taken to the Mary Childs hospital at Mt. Sterling to treatment. If he improves sufficiently he will go to a hospital for a surgical operation.

W. A. Jones and family, Garlin Jones and three of Allie Jones' children came near losing their lives last week from drinking sweet milk.

Drs. Evans and Claypool were called and some of the milk was sent off for analysis. They all got sick about the same time Saturday morning. It is thought the milk was poisoned from the bucket. They are all improving except Garlin who is in a serious condition.—Covington Cor. to Rowan county News.

The proposition to vote bonds for a High School at Bethel voted on Saturday, Sept. 17, was defeated.

Davis Sorrell, who has been confined with typhoid fever for six or eight weeks, is able to be out again.

LADIES' AND MISSES' NEW FALL HATS

We invite you to look them over.

The styles are new—our stock is new. You will be pleased with the hats and delighted with the low prices. Just received a shipment from New York City. It is to your advantage to see them.

Jas. Donaldson, of Peeled Oak, who has been very low with kidney trouble, has been taken to the Mary Childs hospital at Mt. Sterling to treatment. If he improves sufficiently he will go to a hospital for a surgical operation.

W. A. Jones and family, Garlin Jones and three of Allie Jones' children came near losing their lives last week from drinking sweet milk.

Drs. Evans and Claypool were called and some of the milk was sent off for analysis. They all got sick about the same time Saturday morning. It is thought the milk was poisoned from the bucket. They are all improving except Garlin who is in a serious condition.—Covington Cor. to Rowan county News.

The proposition to vote bonds for a High School at Bethel voted on Saturday, Sept. 17, was defeated.

Davis Sorrell, who has been confined with typhoid fever for six or eight weeks, is able to be out again.

Sixteen applicants for teachers' certificates took the examination Friday and Saturday.

BARN BURNED

The tobacco barn belonging to Ed Henderson at the foot of the hill on the Owingsville and Sharpburg pike was totally destroyed by fire early on Wednesday night of last week. The barn contained a good many implements of value which were also lost. Mr. Henderson saved his buggy and a farm wagon and harness. It is not known how the fire originated. The loss is probably $1,500 covered by insurance of $1,000.

Mr. Merchant: what about a few decorations for the School Rally?

Should not Owingsville welcome her visitors by some display of the spirit of celebration?

2t.

Financial aid from the Federal Government, in marketing the 1921 crop of tobacco through the Burley Growers' Marketing Association has been definitely assured.

Sales of North Carolina tobacco are reported 20 to 25 per cent. higher than last year.

JAIL DELIVERY

Three boys, John Pergren 18, Geo. McQuitty 15, and Robert Thompson, all of Salt Lick, confined in jail here, Pergren on charge of assaulting his brother-in-law, Cornwall, and McQuitty and Thompson charged with breaking into and robbing a store at Salt Lick of a considerable quantity of goods, made their escape Monday night by cutting an iron bar in two and prizing the bolt lock back with a stove poker. They have not been heard of since their escape.

The Owingsville colored team defeated the fast team of Washington, Mason county, assisted by some of the best Maysville players, at this place Sunday.

Sixteen applicants for teachers' certificates took the examination Friday and Saturday.

AT THE LYRIC 2 BIG PICTURES

FOR THE SCHOOL RALLY
FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

SEPT. 23 AND 24

Friday will run "CHOOSING A WIFE." This is without doubt one of the best pictures on the screen. Look into your mirror, girls; do you love a man younger than yourself? Do you ever see your beau looking closely at you—wondering how old you are? Fix up; marriage was never more prevalent than at the present time. Young and old rush into this most perilous business with all the confidence in the world. It's time to call a halt; let's think it over. "Choosing a Wife" should be seen by young and old of both sexes.

Friday, matinee 2:30, admission 10 and 20c, night 7:30, admission 20 and 30c.

SATURDAY, SEPT. 24, will run "The Pen Culture"

a gripping story from the Canadian Northwest, full of action from beginning to end and the kind everybody likes. Matinee 2:30, admission 10 and 20c; night 7:30, admission 20 and 30c. You will not be disappointed in these two pictures.

Next Tuesday, Sept. 27, will run the funniest picture you ever saw. This is Special and a good one. Douglas McLean and Doris May in "24 HOURS' LEAVE." Don't miss it.
